

Call for Presenters: ADEI Leadership Certificate

Are you passionate about dismantling systemic racism? Do you have expertise on the historical impact of systemic racism in education, economics, housing, healthcare, politics, media, religion, or sex? We invite professors and staff members to share data, insights, and strategies in a 30-minute presentation video (10-minute increments) on systemic racism in American Systems.

Presentation Requirements:

- Dive into the historical impact of systemic racism.
- Explore present-day realities of systemic racism.
- Propose actionable steps for stakeholders to mitigate harm.
- Promote anti-racist practices, policies, and systems within presentation.

Submission Details:

- To arrange for the recording of your videos with the Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE) at Southern Illinois University Carbondale anytime from July 10, 2024 through August 30, 2024, please contact Greg Wendt, gwendt@siu.edu.

Selected Presenters Receive:

- $1,000 Honorarium

Why Participate?

- Educate on the impact of systemic racism and present-day realities.
- Share your expertise with diverse faculty, staff, and students.
- Contribute to meaningful dialogue and advance antiracism across SIU campuses.

For more information, contact Dr. Sheila Caldwell at sheila.caldwell@siu.edu or Ms. Doris Williams at doris.williams@siu.edu.

Southern Illinois University System
ONE SYSTEM | MANY LOCATIONS | STATEWIDE IMPACT