Native American Heritage Month

Inclusive Conversation:
Missing/Murdered Indigenous Women and Historical Trauma

November 13
12:15

Inclusive Conversations create opportunities to discuss cultural matters relevant to the health of the University community. At this session, Krista English of the Assiniboine tribe will introduce participants to the epidemic of missing and murdered indigenous women in the context of historical trauma.

Register for the Zoom.

Questions? Email wrc@siu.edu.

For disability accommodations call 618/453-5738.